

ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SINGLE-PANEL SCREEN – sketch no. 1

1. Insert the lower vertical tubes 2d (with feet or wheels) into the ends of the crossbar 1 deep enough so that the ends of the crossbar touch the bushings 3 mounted on the vertical tubes.
2. Set the structure upright; rotate the tubes 2d (with feet or wheels) perpendicular to the tube [1], so that the structure stands stably.
3. Slide the masking sleeves [8] onto the ends of the vertical tubes 2d.
4. Insert the upper vertical tubes 2g into the openings of the tubes 2d, locking the push button into the opening 9.
5. Slide the second crossbar 1 onto the upper vertical tubes 2g – align with the ends of the tubes, then tighten the screws 4 located in the tube ends [1].
6. Attach the screen curtain (with Velcro fasteners) to the horizontal tubes.
7. NOTE: To disassemble the feet/wheel unit, unscrew nut [5] and pull out the tube with the feet/wheels.

ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE DOUBLE- OR TRIPLE-PANEL SCREEN – sketch no. 2

1. Insert the vertical tube 2d (with pre-installed foot or wheel) into the end of the crossbar 1 deep enough so that the crossbar end touches the permanently mounted bushing 3 on the vertical tube.
2. Slide the masking sleeve 8 onto the end of the vertical tube 2d.
3. Insert the upper vertical tube 2g into the opening of tube 2d, locking the push button into the opening [9].
4. Insert the end of the connected vertical tubes 6d and 6g into the other end of tube [1].
5. Slide the second crossbar 1 onto the upper vertical tubes 2g – align with the tube ends and tighten the screws 4 located in the tube ends [1].
6. To assemble the double-panel screen, press the bearing clamps 7 onto the vertical tube of the single-panel screen (WARNING: fingers at risk! – best done using a cloth).
7. The triple-panel screen is assembled analogously by attaching the second wing to the other vertical tube of the single-panel screen.
8. After unfolding the panels, attach the screen curtains (with Velcro fasteners).
